Standing Order for Limited Admission to Practice ) for Full-Time Faculty Teaching in Clinical Law ) Programs in Law Schools in South Carolina. )
_____ )

In order to promote the education of law students in the state of South Carolina and to provide legal services to individuals who cannot otherwise afford them, it is hereby ORDERED that full-time faculty who teach in clinical law programs at law schools in the state of South Carolina and who have been admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of South Carolina under South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 414 shall be granted special limited admission to the bar of this Court under the following provisions:

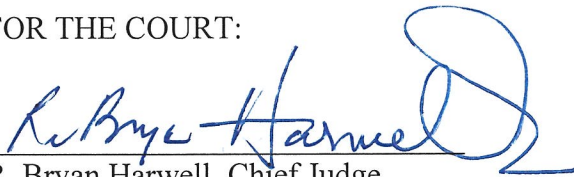

- 1) The attorneys must be members in good standing of the Bar of the South Carolina Supreme Court;
- 2) The attorneys have studied the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct, and the local civil and criminal rules of this Court;
- 3) The dean of the school of law at which the attorney is employed has certified in writing to this Court that the attorney is a full-time faculty member and teaches in the law school's clinical program; and

- 4) The legal services provided by the attorney before this Court are provided for free and solely in connection with the supervision of or instruction in the law school's clinical program.<sup>1</sup>

The limited admission of such attorneys shall last for no more than the period of time the attorney is both employed as a full-time faculty member at a law school in South Carolina and is teaching in the law school's clinical program. Should the attorney either cease to be employed full-time by the law school or cease to teach in the law school's clinical program, the law school dean shall inform the Court, and the attorney's limited admission to the Bar of this Court will be immediately revoked.

ORDERED this 2 day of May, 2024.

FOR THE COURT:

R. Bryan Harwell, Chief Judge
United States District Court
District of South Carolina

Florence, South Carolina

<sup>1</sup> Because this limited practice will involve legal services that are provided for free and solely in connection with the supervision of or instruction in the law school's clinical program, the court waives the payment of the fee prescribed in the District Court Miscellaneous Fee Schedule for the original admission of attorneys to practice.
